MONDAY EVE., NOV. 19, 1899.

Some folks are complimenting the Democrats for having abandoned their claim to the house of representatives. They are entitled to as much praise as the fellow who gave up the pot when he found that his antagonists held four aces. There are situations in life when a man finds himself with no other resort but to give up, and this is one of them.

A good deal of speculation has been indulged in as to the election. Mr. Cleveland will pursue after his hands over the keys to the Harrison on the 4th of March. The best posted folks allege that he will settle in New York City, and become president of one of the large trust companies. The things that the Democrats decried so bitterly and cursed so savagely all through the late campaign.

Joe Cannon for Speaker. It is not without a considerable sense of satisfaction that we observe the growing feeling throughout the country in favor of the selection of Hon. Joseph G. Cannon for speaker of the house in the next congress. Mr. Cannon has served through eight consecutive terms of congress, and has been elected for the ninth. He is in the very prime of his usefulness, and to say that he stands at the head of the list of Western Republican members is but to repeat what every well-informed person is ready to acknowledge. His services in the house have not been a season of ease and gratification; he has been as busily employed during these sixteen years as though he had been at work for himself struggling for a competence. He has made it a solemn duty to carefully study the legislation of his country, and to this work he brought a degree of application born of the most studious habits of the industrious and successful lawyer. He is one of the few men we have intimately known who does not seem to enjoy rest or respite from labor. His work because he likes to master everything he undertakes—works because he is miserable until when he is idle. With this sort of a temperament, and with a mind that has mastered many a knotty problem in law before he turned his attention to legislation, it is small wonder that he has come to be a recognized authority with his colleagues, and that he stands high up among the handful of men who "run" the house of representatives. For it is a fact which cannot be disputed that of the three hundred and twenty-five men who compose that body, more than two hundred and fifty are merely "filling" the business is cut out and planned and carried through by a very small number.

While it would not be exactly true to call Mr. Cannon a great orator, with the power of moving an audience at his will, he is nevertheless a man of immense power in the forum. His speeches are great efforts because he masters the subject before he attempts to discuss it, and there are few public men to-day who give their audiences so much thought about as he. He is perfectly at home upon any question that comes before the house, and he has no superior on the floor in the management of a measure entrusted to him. His experience has been wide and varied, and he has a perfect acquaintance with parliamentary law in general and the specific and complicated rules of the house in particular. In fact no member, on either side is better equipped than he to satisfactorily fill the speaker's chair.

As a complement to the great Northwest, which is hereforth to be the seat of political power, the selection of Mr. Cannon for the third place in the government would be a most fitting and graceful act. He is worthy in every way—why not select him?

Our defeated leader is just now engaged in saying that things about John Archer, Jr.—the man when the election board at Birmingham, Ala., did not want ticket to register after he had in what ticket he intended to vote. Well, it is hardly to be expected that a newspaper could feel in a generous or charitable mood so soon after its party has been to fight, but suppose John Archer is all that the Review charges, would he have any particular motive in telling a barefaced lie of this character? He could not dispose of it and turn it into money, or provisions, or clothing, especially when he is so far away from the place where his story comes to light. He could not pay any debts in this way, nor establish any credit for future operations. And he must have known that if such a story were not true it would subject him to very unpleasant consequences if it should get back there, which it was very sure to do. The fact is, such a charge of the over-sold by the Democratic party of the South have of conducting elections are too old and too well authenticated to be whistled down the wind at this late day. The evidence of their truth exists in the fact that the South is solid. No fair election in the state of Alabama could result in a solid Democratic delegation to Congress. The District in which Birmingham is situated is a Republican district, on a free ballot and a fair count. It is only by such means as Mr. Archer describes that it could be made a Democratic to Congress. When Mr. Henry Watterson admits that there is no such thing as a free and fair election, the details of the snarl fry through the country can safely be disregarded.

We know very little of Mr. Archer or his antecedents while he lived here, but presume that he was a man of average character, and we believe that he has not misrepresented the methods by which the Democratic party has kept Alabama safe and unwavering in the party line.

Tragic Affair Near Maroa—Was It Suicide?

Edward Higgins, aged 23 years, son of a well-known farmer, Morris Higgins, residing two miles west of Maroa was found dead in an upper room on the second floor of the dwelling early this morning, with a bullet in his brain. The young man had eaten his breakfast this morning with the family, and then appeared to be all right. He went up stairs and did not come down again. His father had come to Decatur on the early train, and did not learn of the fatality until informed by Frank Webb who had been telephoned to convey the sad intelligence to Mr. Morris. He did not utter a word, but left at once for the depot to catch the south-bound Central train. Corner Pearl went down on the same train to hold the inquest, which began this afternoon.

Mrs. Higgins had called to her son to come down from his room, but as she recovered no answer she went up to the room to find her son dead, with a small 22 calibre target gun clamped in both hands. The bullet had entered his left temple and death must have been instant.

It is not known whether the fatality was accidental or with suicidal intent. It is learned that young Higgins had been paying little attention to a young lady at Maroa, and that he was given "the mitten" Sunday night at church. Possibly he was despondent and had resolved to kill himself. There were no messages of farewell or explanation.

"Bohemian Girl."

The advance sale of seats for the appearance of the MacCollin opera company will begin at Prescott's on Wednesday morning. The company will appear at the opera house Friday evening in the "Bohemian Girl" and will sing the opera in a manner never before attempted in Decatur. There are 8 talented vocalists with the company, a special orchestra, new costumes and special scenery.

The principal vocalists with the company are A. W. F. MacCollin, who has no equal in comedy roles, Misses Fannie D. Hall, Debe Yuning, Marie Caranmeyer, Kate DeWolf, and J. Leslie Appes, W. H. Ford, Douglas A. Flint, F. H. Kenworthy and L. J. Fulton.

The Mikado will be produced Saturday night. Grand family matinee Saturday afternoon.

Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents.

B. Sine Canned

There was a pleasant episode in the family of M. Heilbrun at the residence on West Main street Saturday evening, Saturday was the birthday anniversary of Mr. B. Sine, the "Boss Clothier" in Central block, and as a reminder of that fact the merchant was presented with a superb gold-headed ebony cane from the Heilbrun family, the cane being appropriately engraved. Little Sammy Heilbrun made the presentation speech in a graceful manner and "Barney" responded in fitting words. The staff may become useful in time but at present Mr. Sine is quite spry. He will set it aside and use it only on state occasions.

The American Salvation Army on Park street, are having a great revival. Much interest is manifested nightly, last night they had five conversions, making twenty-five for the week. Col. Thompson and wife and Miss Miller are zealous workers. Their work here shows for itself, as they have had over one hundred conversions and enrolled on their books thirty-five as workers on the platform, and they are getting into uniform. To-night Mrs. Major McIntosh, the nightingale singer from St. Louis, will be present.

Thrilling "Ranch 10."

Ranch 10, one of the best and most successful of Western plays, will be the attraction Wednesday evening, Nov. 21. This excellent play was written some years ago by Harry Meredith, and made from the start a great hit. It caught on equally well east and west, and since then has been played in all the leading cities of the country. The story is strongly interesting and intensely dramatic, and the play from first to last abounds in thrilling situations and effective climaxes. There are many fine scenic effects depicting far western life, and there is enough quaint and characteristic humor in the play to lighten the more sombre tones of the popular pieces.

Strains and external injuries are the chief causes of weak ankles and joints. By the free use of Salvation Oil a cure will be effected in a short time.

"And there was a man back that night," yes, and they kept it up pretty lively until morning. You see they were not afraid of the early frost—knowing that all the druggists keep supplied with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the old reliable remedy.

Stapp's Chapel Mission.

The dedication of Stapp's M. E. Chapel Sunday school mission at the corner of North Broadway and Herkimer streets, Sunday afternoon, was most gratifying to its projectors and many friends. Mr. A. W. Conklin gave the lot, which cost $315, and he also subscribed $50 additional yesterday. The building is a neat structure seated with chairs. The ladies of the mission have purchased and paid for an organ, lamp and other fixtures. The chapel is not called and seeing that Mr. D. S. Shellenbarger, who was present, said that himself and wife would pay for the completion of the chapel, which would cost $100. Over $300 were raised yesterday by Pastor Scamper at the close of an appropriate sermon. Messrs. J. J. Peddecord, J. W. Haworth and others contributed to this enterprise. The cost of the mission is about $1300. Miss Ella Clothier, in behalf of the trustees in a neat address presented the edifice to the Rev. Geo. L. Scrimger, who proceeded to the formal dedication of the chapel according to the ritual of the Methodist Episcopal church. J. W. Crane assisted in the service. J. W. Spence is superintendent of the school.

Ratifications.

Saturday night the Republicans turned themselves loose in Blue Mound township and held a stinging ratification at Boody, where during the afternoon a Harrison and Morton pole nearly 100 feet high was erected. At night a free supper was served to all who would come and eat, and there were jubilee speeches delivered by Senator Johns and State Attorney May. It was a great time for the Republicans. The young ladies' glee club sang several campaign songs.

At Argenta Friday night the Republicans justified and burnt all the campaign hits in a bonfire. Mt. Zion Republicans will have their burn to-night.

The First Snow.

The first snow of the season visited Decatur Saturday night. It began falling at 11:15 Saturday night, and Sunday morning when the people awoke they discovered two inches of the beautiful snow on the ground to round the old and young folks that Thanksgiving Day and Christmas are coming. There is an old German proverb which says, that we are to have as many snows during the winter as there are days between the first snow and December 25. If this proverb holds good, then we will have but one snow for the winter. Snow showers should feel greatly encouraged.

Nipping the Profits.

Sunday forenoon Officers Bailey and Early arrested three newsboys for fast riding through the streets of the city to deliver the St. Louis papers to boys waiting near the tabernacle. The young man will appear before Justice Proctor this afternoon and answer for the business to the amount of about $5.10 each. The anxiety of the boys to out-speed each other proves decidedly expensive.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Bright Durlee, of Kansas City, is in the city on a visit.

Dr. McFarland, of Jacksonville, arrived at the New Deming to-day.

A. S. Robinson will leave for Topeka, Kansas to-night.

Cabe Baldwin came over from Jacksonville Sunday to spend the day with friends.

Read Spencer left for the east this noon on a business trip.

Miss Lola Harman, of Mansfield, Ohio, is visiting in Decatur. She is a guest of Mrs. A. M. Weiner.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hamaker will depart next week for New Mexico and Colorado, to spend the winter.

Rev. M. D. Haves conducted quarterly meeting services at Maroa on Saturday and Sunday.

Alderman G. S. Simpson has returned from Indiana, where he has been the past week on business.

Paul Young visited the fat stock show in Chicago and saw Dot take the grand sweepstakes prize.

Mrs. J. W. Crane departed this morning for Chicago and Valparaiso, Ind., on a brief visit.

Miss Grace Stahord, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks with lung trouble is but slightly improved.

Charles F. Armstrong left at noon today for Streator, Ill., to sell a bill of boots and shoes to a regular customer, a firm doing business in a store 50x100 feet.

W. J. Scanlan is sick in New Orleans and has recently undergone a surgical operation. On this account the St. Charles Theatre is closed.

Mrs. A. M. Werner, and daughter, Miss Nellie, returned from the east on Sunday, after an absence of seven weeks. They visited relatives and friends in the vicinity of Harrisburg, Pa.

Mrs. Joseph Shellenbarger, of Topeka, Kansas, is in the city. She will start for home to-morrow at 12 and will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Dr. Mitchell, who will spend the winter with her.

Rev. M. M. Goodwin, of the Diocese of Central New York, who officiated at St. John's Church on Sunday, will leave for the east to-night. He had large congregations at both services and pleased everybody by his thoughtful and scholarly discourses. The hope of the parish is that Rev. Goodwin will accept the rectorship to which he has been elected.

Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Bills arrived home Saturday evening from Chicago, where they visited from 12 to 12 and will be accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Dr. Mitchell, who will spend the winter with her.

Read our advertisement of to-day about odd pieces of silver. We will sell for one week many desirable pieces in old Tea and Coffee Pots, sugars, creamers, spoons, etc. Don't want to match them up and must have the room they take up in our case for our new Christmas stock now arriving. These special prices only for one week.

He Is Tough.

"Silver" Flint, of the Chicago club, the war horse of the base ball profession seems to have a cast iron constitution. Year after year he comes to the front smiling and with as much vim and vigor as col. Yet he takes little care of himself.

How Can I Injure a Church?

1. By missing one service out of three. 2. By criticizing my minister and fellow members.

3. By croaking. 4. By leading an inconsistent life. 5. By indulging small and petty prejudices.

6. By making no effort to induce people to attend the church. 7. By being a looker-on instead of a helper-on.

Letter From John C. Latsbaugh.

The following letter is from a former resident of Decatur, now in the clothing and boot and shoe business at Phillipsburg, Kansas.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN.—A little later, I know, but what say you to hurrahing once more? Once for Bemie, once for Levi, and once for all the accessories of the g. o. p. generally. While doing this give the "whoo!" a little extra force for our Sunflower state with its gratifying majority of 75,000.

It is with pleasure I read of old Maroa's loyalty. Let us of this county (Phillips) bear colors with you, we having made a clean sweep from the head of the National ticket to town district.

Last Monday night we polished speeches, bonfires, firing salutes, and a procession following the remains of the defunct—quietly resting upon a mud scow, drawn by an old, long eared, decrepit donkey. Next morning the remains were suspended on a pole, taking a sunbath. All well and delightful weather. Not forget me "ye editor." I enclose the value of a dollar for weekly for ensuing year.

Occasionally a copy fails to reach us, yet its value is as a friend from home. Truly, J. C. LATSHAUGH.

His Wife Followed Him.

J. C. Odell, a young man from Decatur, Ill., is locked up at the Armory, to await trial on a charge of obtaining $130 by means of false pretenses from the proprietor of Deming's Hotel, Clark and Madison streets. Odell was arrested in Decatur by the city marshal and brought back to Chicago at the request of Mr. Deming. Yesterday afternoon Odell's wife, a pretty little woman, came to the Armory, and with tears in her eyes asked to see her husband. She had followed him to this city from Decatur. Her request was granted, and an affecting interview took place.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The Inter-Ocean gives no intimation as to what will be done with Odell. He will probably have his trial this week. The amount claimed by Deming is only $30.

Grand Concert To-Night.

This carefully selected company of artists needs no recommendation to the public. Mme. Valda having won her laurels and merited the title of an artist of the first rank at the Cincinnati Musical Festival last May, and since then throughout this country. Chevalier de Kozsky has been chosen to the world for half a century as one of the greatest piano virtuosos living. Mme. Anna Bulkeley-Hills is a contralto of rare ability, and does credit to the company. The young Swedish tenor, Eugene de Danckwardt, has made a favorable impression wherever he has appeared, both in opera and concert. Mr. Walter Hudson is a well known to American audiences as a fine bass, having appeared in most of the principal cities of the United States. Aiming as I do, at elevating the musical taste in this vicinity, be it both classical and popular, and being satisfied that the people of Decatur are demanding entertainments of high order, I take pleasure in announcing the appearance of this company of artists, for one concert, at the opera house, Monday evening, Nov. 19. Prices, 50 and 75 cents, reserved seats, $1. ORO BULL, nov 12-d6

Where Palmer Got His Vote.

A correspondent in the Chicago Tribune explains the large Prohibition vote received in this state and how it was procured. He says:

In 1884 St. John received in this state 12,000 votes while this year Proctor polled 2,434. He holds the Prohibition vote, the magnificent progress of our party. But wait, let us examine the vote in 1884. The vote was 17 per cent of the total. In 1886 it was 14 per cent, while this year it has fallen to 4 per cent, if calculated on Proctor's vote of 2,434. It is noted on the gubernatorial vote, the total of which was nearly equal to that of Proctor. It is a well known fact that this year the Prohibition party bent all their energies toward securing the showing for Proctor, knowing that the feeble minded folk who compose the bulk and the would accept this as conclusive evidence of Proctor's progress. Having nothing to lose, they knew they could elect nobody, they were quite willing to sacrifice the rest of their vote to accomplish this end. Consequently they spent their time at the polls in inducing Proctor to vote for Proctor, in exchange for their own vote for Palmer. This stated the Democrats, as they had no hope of carrying Illinois for Cleveland, but were desirous of reducing Proctor's majority as much as possible. The result is seen in our tables. Palmer led Cleveland by 6,874 votes. This was made up apparently of the following: Harris polled 472 votes; Jones, James candidate for governor, fell at behind Proctor, which, of course, went to Proctor. Deducting the sum of these numbers from Palmer's excess, we have 15,000 votes left, which were probably given to him by Republican and Laboring men who voted for Harrison and Palmer. I fail to see anything in the returns to discountenance this theory. The Prohibition vote is about 10 per cent of the total vote, or about 100,000 votes.

Will Start a Bank.

J. H. Parker, Anthony Stoughtonborough and S. A. Friedman are soon to open a private bank at Maroa, in a new building to be put up on the Race lot.

The Correct Time.

There are very few men who do not pride themselves on having the correct time, and wonderful and delicate mechanisms are devised to enable them to do so. But the more delicate a chronometer is made, the more subject it becomes to derangement, and unless it be kept always perfectly clean, it loses its usefulness. What wonder, then, that the human frame—so much more delicate and intricate than any work of Man—should require to be kept thoroughly cleansed. The liver is the main-spring of this complex structure, and on the impurities left in the blood by a disordered liver depend most of the ills that death is heir to. Even consumption (which is lung scrofula) is traceable to the imperfect action of this organ. Kidney diseases, skin diseases, sick headache, heart diseases, dropsy, and a long catalogue of gross maladies have their origin in a torpid, sluggish liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, by establishing a healthy, normal action of the liver, acts as a cure and preventative of these diseases.
